Day	Subject	Description	Speaker
Monday May 4th	Know Your Purpose (Focus Your Life)	A leader needs to know himself, his vision, call, destiny, giftings and experience so that he can focus his life and faithfully serve God. By knowing himself and being obedient to God's calling and gifting a leader can be a good steward of all God has given him.	Antoine Rutayisire Team leader of African Evangelistic Enterprise since 1994, and is now a Pastor in the AER church
Tuesday May 5th	Maintain a Healthy Balance	A leader must balance his life, setting his priorities and his pace in such a way as to value his family and give his life the Sabbath rest it needs. Ministry and service to the family flow from a leader's balance and rest.	Steven Langa Director of Family Life Network and lay leader in KPC, Uganda
Wednesday May 6th	Guard Your Integrity	A leader must see to his character, building integrity and trust for a lasting life-long ministry.	David Jenkins Leader of Christ Church, Rwanda
Thursday May 7th	Surround Your Ministry with Prayer Know God's Missionary Heart	A leader relies on God through prayer for his ministry. A leader also needs to build up a network of intercessors to support and protect his ministry and family. A leader must imitate Jesus by seeing the world with compassion, praying for more harvesters, and going into the harvest fields.	Yoshua Masasu Leader of Restoration Church and President of FOBACOR Mary Kamanzi Leader of Youth With A Mission
Friday May 8th	Raise up new leaders with Mentoring	A leader must invest in younger leaders, passing on wisdom and raising up future leaders for the Kingdom.	Antoine Rutayisire
